Press Release

Hungry Minds, Inc. Chairman and Co-Founder Joins Food Bank of South Jersey Board of Trustees

Hungry Minds, Inc. is pleased to announce that its chairman and co-founder, Jeffrey Hayman, has this week joined the board of trustees of the Food Bank of South Jersey (FBSJ). As previously reported, Hungry Minds has been a supporter of FBSJ's Camden High School Pantry and its Mobile Café programs. We are thrilled to have this chance to further support the Food Bank in its mission through our chairman's participation in oversight and governance as a trustee.

Commenting on his appointment to the board, Hayman said, "I am excited about this chance to serve such a great organization and the community. As co-leaders of a small private foundation my wife, Debbie, and I turned to the Food Bank of South Jersey a little over a year ago to help us achieve our mission to feed hungry public school students. The opportunity to get to know about the organization and how it delivers on its much broader mission is compelling."

The Food Bank of South Jersey, located in Pennsauken, exists to provide an immediate solution to the urgent problem of hunger by providing food to people in need, teaching them to eat nutritiously, and helping them to find sustainable ways to improve their lives.

Jeff Hayman is a local entrepreneur and philanthropist, living in Moorestown, NJ. Hayman retired from full time executive life in 2013 after a long career in the insurance industry. In addition to co-founding and co-leading a local student hunger focused charity, Hungry Minds, Inc., with his wife, Debbie, Jeff served for five years on the board of directors of Zurich Insurance Group Ltd in Switzerland and operates an advisory practice, Lakeview Timbers LLC, providing consulting and advice to investors and startup companies in the insurance industry.

Hayman has had an attachment to South Jersey for nearly 40 years. His wife Debbie grew up in Moorestown and they now live together in her childhood home. The Haymans have long focused on food and education oriented philanthropy. They established their first of several scholarship funds almost 20 years ago, have worked with numerous food related charities wherever they lived and now operate Hungry Minds to feed and offer the opportunities of higher education to students in several South Jersey communities.

Hungry Minds, Inc. is a New Jersey based 501(c)3 charitable private foundation focused on public school student hunger and academic opportunity.
